GBC ONLINE BULLETIN | MARYSVILLE | OCTOBER 4, 2020 – VOL 5 ISSUE 1

Dear GBC Family,

Another week of our governor saying nothing about the COVID-19 restrictions. From an earthly perspective, it is disappointing that we, (at least from his perspective) are no closer to being able to worship without the cumbersome restrictions. From a redeemed perspective, our sovereign God ordains every single detail of life and we rest and rejoice in that.

Even with the face masks and the distancing, do your best to greet each other before and after our service. Don't forget to greet me as well, as I do my best to be down in front of the Activity Center while John leads you in a closing song.

Looking forward to another day opening the Word and worshipping together, even with masks, distancing, restrictions and all. I trust you will be encouraged, and that our Lord and Savior Jesus Christ will be pleased with all He sees and hears.

John

OUTREACH

Dick & Mavis Buck

ABWE, Brazil

In his last letter from Sept. 7th, Dick wrote, "Our 'captivity' has rolled into its 173rd day today and the indoor routine continues. Not complaining, just reporting." They were able to reconnect with a church that they had ministered in several years ago but had lost contact with shortly after the lockdown. The church currently has no pastor on site, so an invitation for Dick to preach via livestream was given. He writes, "A pastor has been called, but is unable to move because of the pandemic. So, further invitations were implied. Bring them on." Dick also participated in a teleconference looking to develop an internet evangelical newsletter. "The project will involve leaders from several regions. It is being coordinated by a Brazilian journalist of longtime acquaintance. Dick will be a writer/counselor."

Thank you for faithful and gracious giving.
