GBC ONLINE BULLETIN | MARYSVILLE | NOVEMBER 8, 2020 – VOL 6 ISSUE 2

Dear GBC Family,

This Lord's Day we continue to look at the high calling and high responsibility of those God calls to lead the church. While our country continues to manifest ever more blatantly the characteristics of depravity, it's to be expected from those who are spiritually dead. Lord willing God will enable many lost men to understand that no human leader can resolve the ramifications of spiritual deadness and so while the world gets darker, we must shine ever brighter for the glory of God.

I encourage you to continue to pray for Jeannie who has spent the past couple of days in the hospital. Praise the Lord she is back in her own home. She is such a faithful prayer warrior for all of us, I know she covets our prayers for her as well.

Pray also for Mark and LaurieAnne Ruhlman as the arrival of another blessing from God is imminent.

Some relevant quotes concerning the election this past week.

If your comfort was in the governing power of men, Wednesday was a difficult day.
If your comfort was in the governing power of God, it was just another Wednesday.

Adapted from Dale Partridge

The reason for that is explained by the apostle Paul in

"For our citizenship is in heaven, from which also we eagerly wait for a Savior, the Lord Jesus Christ;"

Philippians 3:20

I don't fear the future because I know who's in charge and I know where I'm going.

Adapted from RC Sproul

Of the innumerable blog posts written before and following the election, perhaps one of the most biblical comes from Dr. Kevin DeYoung pastor of Christ Covenant Church in Matthews, North Carolina.

Remember, God was on the throne and sovereignly ordaining all things last Sunday, He's still in the same place, doing the same thing this Sunday for His honor and His glory.

See you this Lord's Day,

John

What Will Still Be True When the Election Is Over

by Kevin DeYoung | The Gospel Coalition | November 3, 2020

We may know by early morning who will be president. Or we may not know until the end of the year which side will be celebrating come Inauguration Day. But whether we have hours or days or weeks left, the 2020 election season will come to an end. And when it is over—after countless tweets, posts, articles, and punditry; after being exposed to a steady stream of advertising, befuddlement, and outrage; after all the ballots have been counted and you feel relieved, grateful, or despondent—don't forget what will still be true:

God will still be on the throne, and he will be working all things according to the counsel of his will (Eph. 1:11). God will be our refuge and strength, a very present help in trouble (Ps. 46:1). God's dominion will be an everlasting dominion, and his kingdom will endure from generation to generation (Dan. 4:34).

Our God is not small, and his providential care cannot be stymied. The king's heart will be a stream of water in the hand of the Lord, and he will turn it wherever he chooses (Prov. 21:1). Not a bird will fall to the ground, or a hair from your head, apart your Father in heaven (Matt. 10:29-30). Our God does whatever he pleases (Ps. 115:1).

There is no guarantee, for good or ill, regarding the future of the United States of America, but there is an unbreakable promise that Christ will build the church, and the gates of hell will not prevail against it (Matt. 16:18).

Come tomorrow, all of the promises of God will still be Yes and Amen in Christ (2 Cor. 1:20). Nothing will be able to separate us from the love of God in Christ Jesus our Lord (Rom. 8:39). The Lord will still know those who are his (2 Tim. 2:19), and if you believe in the Lord Jesus Christ you will be saved (Acts 16:31).

We do not have to wonder about God's priorities. Each new day, he will exalt about all things his name and his word (Ps. 138:2). God promises to oppose the proud and give grace to the humble (James 4:6). The poor in spirit, the mournful, the meek, the hungry, the merciful, the pure, the peacemakers, the persecuted—they will be blessed (Matt. 5:3-10). And the wicked will reap what they sow; God cannot be mocked (Gal. 6:7).

No matter who controls the Senate or the presidency, the Great Commission will still be accomplished through the ordinary means of word and sacrament (Matt. 28:19-20; Luke 24:48; Acts 1:8). As for man, his days will be like grass (Ps. 103:15). The grass withers, the flower fades, but the word of our God will remain forever (Isa. 40:8). Whichever party occupies the White House or the governor's mansion, the most solemn charge laid upon every pastor will be the same: to preach the word in season and out of season (2 Tim. 4:1-2).

Republicans and Democrats will come and go, but Christ's reign is secure. On his robe and on his thigh he has a name written, King of kings and Lord of lords (Rev. 19:16). There is only one name given among men whereby we must be saved (Acts 4:12). And one day—maybe soon—the kingdom of this world will become the kingdom of our Lord and of his Christ, and he shall reign for ever and ever (Rev. 11:15).

Politics matters. Policies matter. Presidents matter. They really do. But let us never forget that some things matter much, much, eternally much more.

Attendee Responsibilities—COVID-19 Safe Start Plan

1. You are required to self-screen for signs and symptoms of COVID-19 before arriving at church, which includes taking your temperature before attending a service.

If you have a fever, or any COVID-19 symptoms (that you cannot attribute to another condition), we ask that you stay home and watch the service via live-stream.

2. You are required to answer the COVID-19 screening questions upon entry into the Activity Center or we will not be able to allow you to enter and you will need to watch the service via live-stream from home.

3. You are required to wear a face covering before, during, and after the service indoors (including while singing); exceptions include:

- A. You have a medical condition, mental health condition, or disability that prevents wearing a face covering (this does not require proof of condition; a verbal notification is acceptable).

- B. Children younger than five (5) years old.

- C. When any party to a communication is deaf or hard of hearing and not wearing a face covering is essential to communication (this does not require proof of condition; a verbal notification is acceptable).

- D. You are outdoors and maintain at least six (6) feet of distance from non-household members.

4. You must have at least six (6) feet of space between your family's seats (members of the same household may be seated together as a single unit) and those of other households.

5. You must maintain at least six (6) feet of physical distancing during interactions with others (not in your household) before, during, and after service (i.e., no direct physical contact, such as hugging, shaking hands, etc.).

6. You will be required to enter/exit through a single access point only; other access points will not be accessible.

7. Only three women are permitted in the Women's restroom at a time. Only two men are permitted in the Men's restroom at a time. Those waiting to use a restroom must maintain at least six (6) feet of distance between you and each waiting person.

8. There will be a lockbox in the back of the Activity Center that you may put your offering in.

9. GBC will provide COVID-19 required (PPE) Personal Protective Equipment supplies.

10. For questions regarding these requirements, please visit: <https://coronavirus.wa.gov/>

There will be NO child care provided: Nursery, Cry Room, and Children's Sunday School Closed. Children in attendance MUST remain with parents for the duration of their time on campus.
