Outreach & Ministry Prayer Update

Paul & Bella Gervasi
Indonesia

In their most recent communication, Paul expressed the concern of how to make the Bible dedication ceremony God honoring. He wrote, "One of our deep concerns was how to make the dedication ceremony honoring to God with all the secular speakers that we really have to give time to. With this kind of event, we have to invite government officials from our area. Most of these men are not believers. After getting some advice from another missionary who has been through this, we have decided to have two dedication meetings. The first will be a ceremony for our church. During that meeting, we will give the Bibles to most of our folks and have a time centered around praise to our Lord. The next day, we plan to have the 'official' dedication with all of the speakers and formality."
